

WORKPLACE AND SITE SAFETY INSPECTIONS

Employers, property owners, landlords, tenants and licensees are duty bound to regularly inspect their workplace and report on significant findings, introducing precautionary measures to reduce risk to the health and safety of personnel.

Tennyson Suite has a dedicated team of safety advisers, each with their particular speciality, who can correctly inspect and report on your office, workshop, warehouse, motor vehicle repair station, construction site or common parts of a residential block. These reports provide a practical range of safety measures for consideration that are aimed at ensuring legal compliance, whilst addressing your workplace health and safety needs and objectives.
